TITLE 143
PROCEDURAL RULE
WEST VIRGINIA DIVISION OF PERSONNEL

SERIES 6
APPEAL OF ADVERSE SUITABILITY DETERMINATION

§143-6-1. General.

1.1. Scope. -- This rule implements the provisions set forth in the West Virginia Division of Personnel Pre-employment Reference and Inquiries Rule (143CSR4). The information contained in this procedural rule should not be construed to supercede any State or federal law or administrative rule. In the event of any inconsistencies between the procedural rule and such law and/or regulation, the statutory and/or administrative rule provisions shall prevail.

1.2. Authority. -- This rule is issued under authority of W. Va. Code §29-6-10.

1.3. Filing Date. -- October 23, 2006.

1.4. Effective Date. -- November 23, 2006.

§143-6-2. Definitions. Terms used in this document which are not included in this section have the meaning given in the Division of Personnel Administrative Rule, 143CSR1, and Pre-employment Reference and Inquiries Rule, 143CSR4.

2.1. Applicant: Individual being considered for employment in the classified service of the State of West Virginia, or in the classified service within a County Health Department, and any employee being considered for transfer or promotion to a classified service position for which there is a suitability standard that is different and/or more stringent than the standard for the employee's current position.

2.2. Appointing Authority: The executive or administrative head of an agency who is authorized by statute to appoint employees in the classified or classified-exempt service. By written notification to the Director of Personnel, the appointing authority may delegate specific powers authorized by this rule to persons who satisfy the definition of employee as established in this rule.

2.3. Authorized Designee: Employee who is designated by a Qualified Entity and approved by the Division of Personnel to receive and process criminal history check request forms from subject individuals, receive criminal history information and make suitability determinations.

2.4. Contact Person: Employee who is designated by an appointing authority and approved by the Division of Personnel to receive and process criminal history check request forms from subject individuals, but who is neither authorized to receive criminal history information nor to make final suitability determinations.

2.5. Director: The Director of Personnel, as provided in W. Va. Code §29-6-6 and §29-6-9, who serves as the executive head of the Division of Personnel, or his or her designee.

2.6. Disqualifying Event: Events for which a subject individual may be denied employment to include those items provided in Section 6.4(a) of the West Virginia Division of Personnel Administrative Rule (143CSR1). For the purposes of this definition, a plea of "guilty" or "no contest" is considered a conviction unless the charge was subsequently invalidated by a court decision or a full pardon by the Governor or the President of the United States.

2.7. Employee: Any person who lawfully occupies a position in an agency and who is paid a wage or salary and who has not severed the employee-employer relationship.

2.8. Position: An authorized and identified group of duties and responsibilities assigned by the proper authority requiring the full-time or part-time employment of at least one person.

2.9. Qualified Entity: Any appointing authority authorized by the Director of Personnel to conduct investigations and/or to secure reports in compliance with the Pre-employment Reference and Inquiries Rule (143CSR4).

2.10. Subject Individual: An applicant or employee who is subject to a criminal history check pursuant to the Pre-employment Reference and Inquiries Rule (143CSR4).

2.11. Suitability Determination: The assessment of a subject individual's criminal background record, central abuse registry record, and/or driving record to determine whether the individual's employment in a particular position will be conducive to a safe workplace and public accountability and is not likely to result in damage or injury to others.

2.12. Transfer: The movement of an employee to a classified service position in a different subdivision or geographic location of the same or a different agency.

2.13. Year: Twelve (12) consecutive month period, unless otherwise specified.

§143-6-3. Notice of Suitability Determination.

3.1. The Authorized Designee shall review the criminal history request form established by the Division of Personnel and make a preliminary suitability determination. If the criminal history request form completed by the subject individual contains information that would make her or him ineligible for employment, a suitability determination may be made without requesting a criminal history check.

3.2. Within ten (10) working days after receiving the criminal history reports, the Authorized Designee shall complete the notice of suitability determination form established by the West Virginia Division of Personnel and forward it to the subject individual. The notice of suitability determination form shall contain information regarding the opportunity for appeal.

§143-6-4. Challenging a Suitability Determination.

4.1. If a subject individual wishes to challenge an adverse suitability determination he or she may appeal the determination by requesting an administrative review. The appointing authority shall not fill the vacant position for which the subject individual applied until completion of the appeal process.

a. In order to request an administrative review, the subject individual or the subject individual's representative must complete and sign the Administrative Review Request, Form PRIA-1, (provided as Attachment A).

b. The subject individual must file the completed and signed PRIA-1 form with the Director not later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the notice of suitability determination has been received. The Director may extend the time to appeal if the Director determines the delay was caused by factors beyond the reasonable control of the subject individual.

4.2. When adverse action is taken against a subject individual by an appointing authority and the subject individual requests an administrative review, the Director shall conduct the review with the Authorized Designee who made the suitability determination. If, in the opinion of the Director, an administrative hearing is necessary, the subject individual shall be notified by the Director in writing of the request for a hearing. Procedural rules set forth in West Virginia Code § 29A, State Administrative Procedures Act, shall apply.

a. The subject individual and, if applicable, the subject individual's representative must participate in the administrative review and/or hearing. If the subject individual fails to participate, the subject individual's right to an administrative review is terminated if, in the opinion of the Director, the subject individual lacks good cause for failure to participate.

b. The purpose of the administrative review determination or hearing is to:

1. Inform the subject individual of the rules, regulations, laws, etc., that serve as the basis for the denial,

2. Give the subject individual an opportunity to review the information that is the basis for the denial, except as prohibited by State or federal law,

3. Ensure the subject individual is provided a thorough explanation of the reason for the denial,

4. Give the Director and the subject individual the opportunity to correct any misunderstanding of the facts, and

5. Provide an opportunity for the Director and the subject individual to resolve the situation.

c. Upon completion of the administrative review, the subject individual and Authorized Designee are advised by the Director in writing of the decision within thirty (30) calendar days.

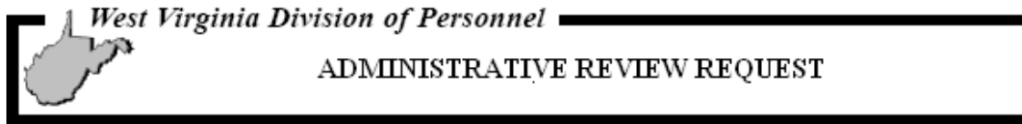

d. If the administrative review reverses the adverse action, the appointing authority shall consider the subject individual for the position and the Division of Personnel will permit the subject individual to participate in the competitive employment process and, if applicable, re-certify the subject individual. However, if the administrative review upholds the original suitability determination, the appointing authority shall not give consideration to the subject individual for the position in question. Further, the Division of Personnel may remove the subject individual from and/or bar the subject individual from certification to applicable civil service registers and/or shall find the subject individual ineligible for promotion into all applicable classifications.

e. The Director of Personnel may authorize employees of the Division of Personnel to act on her or his behalf during an administrative review and/or hearing. The Director retains the right to be represented by the Attorney General in administrative hearings in which the Director issued the initial suitability determination. Such hearings shall be conducted by either the Assistant Director of Staffing Services or the Assistant Director of Employee Relations.

f. Administrative hearings are not open to the public.

g. The subject individual may withdraw an administrative review request by notifying the Director orally or in writing at any time. The withdrawal is effective the date the Director receives notification, after which he or she will issue a dismissal order.

h. When an appeal is resolved, the Director will issue a final order.

i. The Director shall issue an order effective the date of the scheduled hearing dismissing the appeal if neither the subject individual nor the subject individual's representative appear at the time and place specified for the hearing. The Director will cancel the dismissal order on request of the subject individual or the subject individual's representative on a showing that the subject individual and the subject individual's representative were unable to attend the hearing and unable to request a postponement for reasons beyond their control.

If you are denied or restricted following a criminal history check, you may request an administrative review. To request a review, this form must be completed and received by the Director of the West Virginia Division of Personnel not later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the notice of the suitability determination is mailed. Attach a copy of your Criminal History Request form (PRI-2) and the Notice of Suitability Determination (PRI-3) and mail the forms to:

ATTN: Director of Personnel
 West Virginia Division of Personnel
 Capitol Complex, Bldg. 6, Room B-416
 1900 Kanawha Blvd., East
 Charleston, West Virginia 25305-0139

If, in the opinion of the Director, an administrative hearing is necessary, you will be notified in writing of the request for a hearing. You have the right to be represented by a representative of your choosing and may have witnesses testify on your behalf at your own expense. You may withdraw the appeal at any time.

Administrative reviews and/or hearings are conducted in accordance with the West Virginia Division of Personnel Pre-employment Reference and Inquiries Rule (143CSR4) and procedures. If you disagree with the information provided by the West Virginia State Police or Federal Bureau of Investigation, you must cause the reporting entity to submit a copy of the amended record to the Director if you successfully contest the accuracy or completeness of information provided by the applicable entity. Information on how to contact law enforcement agencies is located on the back of the Criminal History Request form (PRI-2).

Pursuant to Section 7 of the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of social security numbers (SSN) is mandatory. Social security numbers are required to investigate backgrounds with the State Police, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and/or other appropriate entity. Failure to provide a SSN will result in the application being considered incomplete and withdrawn. The West Virginia Division of Personnel has authority to solicit SSN's pursuant to W. Va. Code § 29-6-1, et seq.
