

Aju James

Biography

Aju James is a Training and Development Consultant with the WV Division of Personnel's Organization and Human Resource Development (OHRD) section.

At OHRD, he designs and delivers training sessions that are informed by the latest research and advances the professional development of WV state employees. Aju brings five years of experience in higher education. His teaching career covered fundamental skills such as critical thinking and effective writing, as well as courses on US history and culture and instructional design for K-12 teachers. He brings a combined focus on content knowledge and practical skills to designing training sessions at OHRD.

Aju has accepted the fact that he is a city slicker. He enjoys walking around downtown Charleston, petting other people's dogs, and volunteers at a community garden.
