

Who is this certification for?

If you are a manager responsible for producing results in environments influenced by rapid social, technological, staffing, and political changes, the Managing for Excellence (MFE) certification may be for you. Please review the program fact sheet below.

Am I Eligible?

To be eligible to apply for the MFE Certification offered by the WV Division of Personnel-OHRD, you must be an executive, supervisor, or manager in WV State Government who has completed Components I, II and III of Supervisor/Manager Training Program \(DOP Policy 18\).

How Do I Apply?

Interested applicants who meet the eligibility requirements noted above must complete the following process to be considered for the certification program.

1. Complete the online 2025/26 MFE Application Form
2. Ensure your manager receives the electronic recommendation and submits it before the application deadline.

How Long Does the Program Take?

Approximately twelve months

What are the Basic Components of the Program?

The MFE Certification includes three multi-day face-to-face classes, a graded management case project that includes outside reading and required coaching hours. Candidates must successfully complete ALL components/assignments to receive the certification.

Breakdown of Required Hours

- Training (54 hrs.) of face-to-face training

Program	Time	When	Where
Webinar	1.5 Hours	April 25, 2025	Google Meets
MFE I	3 Days	May 20-22, 2025	Canaan Valley Resort
MFE II	3 Days	October 21-23, 2025	WVSTC Charleston
MFE III	3 Days	April 21-23, 2026	Canaan Valley Resort

- Management Case (30 hrs.) Candidates will identify a current performance gap or strategic opportunity that is challenging their team, division, or organization and use that issue to build a comprehensive strategy and implementation plan. Through a combination of course work, coaching sessions, out of class reading assignments, and peer-to-peer learning, candidates will develop and implement these plans to improve their team's performance and build their personal cases.

Online Coaching Sessions

- A minimum of twelve (12) online coaching sessions are required as part of the management case project. These online coaching sessions are designed to: help transfer knowledge acquired from course sessions, identify personal performance improvement projects, deepen individual learning, and create feedback loops. Additionally, candidates will enhance their unique leadership style and create a personal action plan for ongoing development.

Outside Readings

- Participants will be asked to complete a minimum of eight (8) hours of readings related to their topic. These readings will be conducted in-between coaching sessions and participants will be asked to report out about the readings in the online coaching sessions.

Case Design and Implementation

- Based on classwork, coaching, and readings, participants will develop, implement, and document the process and results of their management case. This will take a minimum of twenty (20) hours of work and include the creation of a final portfolio which will be presented at the MFE III session.

Do I Have to Travel?

Each class may be held at a different location either in Charleston, WV at the State Training Center or at a state park. Please review the breakdown of training hours above for more details on what your specific travel requirements would be.
